The day the Mayor went blind

AXMINSTER Mayor Jeremy Walden's objection to the proposed new location for the town's Post Office was reinforced after he experienced what it was like to be blind.

Councillor Walden agreed to be blindfolded and escorted by a guide dog to Martin's Newsagent, situated on one of the town's most dangerous corners and selected for the proposed home for the local Post Office, which may be moved from its current West Street site.

"It relates to Gloucestershire Regiment's Egypt campaign.

"The medal can be reclaimed from the rectory."

“ THE proposed move is subject to public consultation. The purpose of the consultation process is to gather the thoughts of members of the local community on the proposals. That includes the Mayor, and we hope that he and the council will share their views on the proposals.

As we have stressed throughout this process, no decisions will be made until the end of the consultation period. All issues raised during that engagement process will be seriously considered alongside any other points made during the consultation.

Tigers drop into bottom three

A 2-0 DEFEAT under the floodlights at Greenway Lane against Budleigh Salterton on Wednesday saw Axminster Town drop down into the bottom three in the South West Peninsula League Division One (east).

But the Tigers put an end to a seven game losing run with a 3-3 draw at Plymstock United on Saturday.

Elsewhere, there was a shock in the East Devon Senior Cup as Devon & Exeter league premier division outfit Seaton Town, conceded four second-half goals and went down 4-0 at division one side Sidbury United.

AXMINSTER

Day the Mayor went blind

AXMINSTER Mayor Jeremy Walden's objection to the proposed new location for the town's Post Office was reinforced after he experienced what it was like to be blind.

Councillor Walden agreed to be blindfolded and escorted by a guide dog to Martin's Newsagent, situated on one of the town's most dangerous corners and selected for the proposed home for the local Post Office, which is being moved from its current West Street site.

The Mayor agreed to the experiment as part of the Guide Dogs for the Blind awareness campaign. The proposed new post office premises were not part of the planned route, but Mr Walden asked for it to be included.

Many in the town are strongly opposed to the plans by Post Office Ltd to move the facility because of the narrow pavement, which is often mounted by heavy goods vehicles passing through Axminster.

Led by guide dog Dotty and Liz Orme, Councillor Walden started his walk from the Church Rooms and slowly made his way towards Martin's (McColl's) newsagents.

He reached the shop without incident but came unstuck when starting the return leg as a mobility scooter had been parked in a precarious position outside the shop.

Councillor Walden believes his experiment proved a point. Having made it back to Church Rooms, he said: "My original view that it is an unacceptable location (for the post office) was reinforced, especially with a scooter parked on the pavement."

Guide dog user Andrew Starr wasn't keen on the proposed post office relocation either.

He said: "It can be a bit problematic (the stretch of pavement), especially if a lot of people are around, "It is difficult for him [guide dog Timber] to manoeuvre."

A Post Office Ltd spokesperson revealed that the company has met with Axminster Town Council, and said: "Representatives from Post Office Ltd attended a meeting with Axminster Town Council on October 8th.

"We have also offered to attend the meeting planned on October 14th to hear the views and concerns of the council, post office customers and residents of Axminster.

"The proposed move is subject to public consultation. The purpose of the consultation process is to gather the thoughts of members of the local community on the proposals."

From the editor's chair Post Office concerns

THERE is great concern in Axminster over the possibility of the Post Office moving from its convenient, safe and expansive site in West Street.

The proposed new location is Martin's Newsagents in Victoria Place on one of the most dangerous corners in the town.

If you were to draw up a list of the most unsuitable locations for a Post Office, Martins would undoubtedly be at the top.

As long serving town and district councillor John Jeffery put it: "You might as well put it in the middle of the M5."

The Victoria Place corner has been the site of many near misses over the years as huge lorries that often pass through Axminster are forced to mount the narrow pavement to get around the bend without colliding with oncoming traffic.

Pedestrians take their life in their hands when trying to negotiate the corner and those with prams or mobility scooters are often in real danger.

There has been great change in the operation of Post Offices in recent years with more emphasis on pensions and other state payments being made straight into people's bank accounts rather than over the counter.

The trend is for Post Offices to move out of dedicated premises into existing shops, as happened at Colyton where services are now located in the Premier Stores supermarket. Lyme Regis is also likely to lose its dedicated Post Office in Broad Street by the end of the year but to date no alternative has been secured.

Post Office Limited, which runs the service, have emphasised that no final decision has been made about the location of Axminster Post Office and they are currently going through a period of consultation with Axminster Town Council and the local populace.

If that is the case, and there are many who believe the decision is already cut and dried and that Post Office Limited are just going through the motions, it is imperative that the people of Axminster make their thoughts known.

The Mayor of Axminster, Councillor Jeremy Walden, is one of those strongly opposed to the move and highlighted the difficulties that disabled people might encounter when he agreed to wear a blindfold and be escorted around the town by a guide dog, experiencing particular difficulties outside the chosen location for the new Post Office.

COLYTON

Historic home for heritage centre

COLYTON Parish History Society has been given a permanent home which will soon open to the public as a heritage centre.

The society has been offered space in one of the town's most historically-significant buildings, the Abbotts Law Chambers in Market Place, formerly occupied by Abbotts Antiques & Collectables, by owner Jackie McCullough.

The section of the grade II listed building previously open to the public as a shop will be converted into a tea room and garden, with previously private sections of the house, including impressive 16th century features of national significance, being opened as a volunteer-run heritage centre, named The Merchant's House Heritage Centre.

The history society hopes to open the centre temporarily for Colyton Christmas Fayre on December 4th, and to officially open the completed centre at Easter time next year.

The society previously ran a heritage centre in a temporary cabin in the Dolphin Street Car Park as a test to see if something more permanent would work. The cabin closed five years ago and members are now delighted to have been offered space in such an historically-significant building. A public meeting was recently held to discuss the possibility of opening a new heritage centre, with the general consensus supporting the project.

It is thought the building was the house of a wealthy merchant in the 16th century, with the only remaining Mediaeval elements of the building being the thick stone walls and the half-timbered dividing wall in the Law Chambers, where the heritage centre will be based.

The building was later modified to create a second storey and refinements such as the fireplace and elaborate ceiling features, which demonstrate the merchant's wealth. Remnants of the fireplace in the Abbotts can still be seen, with the sides and lintel made from a robust stone. This was later crudely cut through to create access to the room behind, and further damaged to create space for Colyton's first phone exchange.

HONITON

Plans to restore water feature

A TOWN councillor hopes to restore flowing water to the town centre's water channel.

Councillor Roy Coombs says that restoring water to the channel would bring "an extra dimension" to the town centre and be of interest to visitors.

He was hoping that a heritage working group would be given formal clearance to take on the project when Honiton Town Council met yesterday evening as Pulman's View went to press.

He said it is too early to say how much it would cost to restore flowing water, but said it would not be as simple as just turning on a tap.

Devon County Council has already done some work on an iron channel in New Street to the roundabout, and one culvert has also been constructed.

But there are known blockages and, for example, a culvert under Pottery Close would also have to be constructed.

Councillor Coombs said the water channel was created many years ago when properties did not have mains drainage, providing a source of water. but had been obsolete since mains water was introduced.

SIDMOUTH

River is key for wildlife

IMPROVED water quality will lead to thriving wildlife in and around River Sid.

Devon Wildlife Trust and the Sid Vale Association are six months into a joint project said to have made 'a splash'.

It focuses on a six-mile stretch, plus tributaries, of the River Sid upstream from Sidmouth.

Devon Wildlife Trust's Scott West is leading the project, and he said: "Many people know and love the River Sid.

"It's somewhere that local communities walk, play and live beside. It's also a key component of what brings tourists to this wonderful part of the world.

"What the project is aiming to do is to ensure that the river remains as a special place for and people and wildlife.

"That means looking after its water quality and making sure that it can continue to support a wide diversity of life.

"It's also an opportunity to see how positive management on the Sid can lead to healthier rivers not just here but across East Devon.

OTTERY St MARY

ROADSIDE verges in and around Ottery St Mary have been chosen for a wildflower project piloted by Devon County Council and Devon Wildlife Trust.

The aim is to "enhance areas of roadside verges to help reverse the decline of wildflowers and pollinating insects"

A handful of sites have been chosen in the Ottery St Mary area for the trial.

Seeds of plant species such as Yellow Rattle, which is an annual flower that discourages grass growth and encourages wildflower growth, will be sown with a variety of other wildflower seeds on the selected verges next month.

Not only would the wildflowers provide attractive displays but would also help to encourage bees, butterflies and other insects populations to recover.

The knock-on effect of more wildflowers may also reduce the abundance of grass which could reduce the amount of grass cutting required.

Teacher publishes ghost story

AXE Valley Community College English teacher Emma Carroll has had her debut book published.

"Frost Hollow Hall" is a Victorian ghost story aimed 9 to 12-year-olds.

She works part time at the Axminster college, and writes in her spare time.

Emma said: "I've always had the ambition to write a book. English was always my favourite subject at school."

But it wasn't until she relatively recently gained a Masters in creative writing at Bath Spa University that she started to take her writing "really seriously".

She secured a two-book deal with Faber & Faber, and has already started on the second one, a book set in a circus.

Emma lives in Combe St Nicholas and has worked at Axe Valley Community College since 1999.

Sponsored shave for the Project

AN ARTIST and retired teacher turned clean-shaven for the first time in 34 years to raise money for an Axminster-based charity.

David Manners waved goodbye to his beard on Friday September 27th during a fundraiser for The Project, a free service for youngsters with emotional and mental health issues.

The fundraiser was held in The Nag's Head in Lyme Regis and raised £350.

Mr Manners, who retired from teaching maths at The Woodroffe School in 2012, said: "The Project provides an invaluable service for local young people who are experiencing issues with their mental health, and I am delighted to be able to help support this new group."

The Project opened to young people last month and is already receiving a steady stream of referrals.

It also provides a separate service for the parents and guardians of young people with emotional and mental health issues.

David, who himself has had first-hand experience of mental illness, and Debbie Humberstone, the founder of The Project whose daughter developed severe mental health issues at the age of 15, both believe that speaking out about mental illness is the way forward in changing people's attitudes and breaking down the stigma which surrounds mental health problems.

Debbie said: "It is easy to say that this won't ever happen to me - I used to think that.

"But what I now know is that mental illness does not discriminate - it can happen to anyone at any time."

If anyone is interested in donating just £5 to The Project and David's beard shave, they can do so by texting the message 'DAVE£5 £5' to 70070.

If you would like to make a larger donation, or would like information about The Project, contact Debbie on 07970 167341 or e-mail info@theprojectyp.org.uk.

Guide dog user Andrew Starr wasn't keen on the proposed post office relocation either.

He said: "It can be a bit problematic (the stretch of pavement), especially if a lot of people are around, it is difficult for him [guide dog Timber] to manoeuvre."

A Post Office Ltd spokesperson revealed that the company had met with Axminster Town Council on October 8th.

A spokesperson said: "We also offered to attend a council meeting on October 14th to hear the views and concerns of the council, post office customers and residents of Axminster. The proposed move is subject to public consultation. The purpose of the consultation process is to gather the thoughts of members of the local community on the proposals.

"That includes the Mayor, and we hope that he and the council will share their views on the proposals.

"As we have stressed throughout this process, no decisions will be made until the end of the consultation period.

"All issues raised during that engagement process will be seriously considered alongside any other points made during the consultation."

Forum to meet funders for community projects

EAST Devon and Blackdown Hills funding programme Making it Local will host a free forum and funding fair d at Deer Park Hotel, Buckerell, on Tuesday October 22nd from 6pm to 9pm.

Project development worker Kate Tobin said: "We will be looking back at the range of projects funded by Making it Local since 2009, as well as consulting on priorities for the future."

"We will be joined by Nick Ames, managing director of Dunkeswell firm Supacat, and a board member of the Heart of the South West Local Enterprise Partnership, who will be talking about the responsibilities of this new body.

"We have invited a broad range of funders and advisors, so it's a great chance to meet funders face to face to discuss ideas for community projects or rural businesses."

The event is free but booking is essential by emailing makingitlocal@devon.gov.uk or ringing 01823 680626.

Making it Local was set to close in December this year, but has managed to secure an extension, giving time to prepare and submit a bid for another tranche of EU funding for 2015-2020.

Making it Local has funded 75 different projects between 2009 and 2013 and contributed £1.39million to the local economy.

It uses the outstanding landscapes and local skills within and around the East Devon and Blackdown Hills AONBs as a springboard for sustainable development. Decisions are made locally by a local action group which has community, business and local authority membership.

The programme is funded from the EU, Defra and Leader. It aims to use the outstanding landscapes and local skills as a springboard for healthier and lasting development. Decisions are made locally by a Local Action Group which has community, business and local authority membership.

Next steps for East Devon's Local Plan

AROUND 265 individuals and organisations have made comments in the latest round of consultation on the East Devon Local Plan. Comments will be forwarded to the Planning Inspector later this month.

The examination of the plan started at the time it was submitted to the Planning Inspectorate in August. We are expecting that in February 2014 there will be hearing sessions at which the Planning Inspector will listen in person to the arguments and cases that people want to present.

In August, the Planning Inspector, Mr Anthony Thickett, had advised that further consultation was needed because the changes from an earlier version were in his opinion significant enough to warrant another round of consultation.

Only those changes to the earlier version of the plan were to be the subject of any new comments.

Consultation closed at 12 noon yesterday on Monday, October 7th) and Councillor Helen Parr, Chairman of Development Management Committee, said: "Our Local Plan, like many others across the country, has generated considerable interest and debate. Now that a date has been set for the oral hearing sessions, we look forward to finalising our new planning policy document as soon as we can."

Evidence

New comments went before Development Management Committee on October 5th and will then go to full council on October 23rd - where approval will be sought to send the comments on to the Planning Inspector.

Leading up to the hearing sessions, which start on February 11th 2014, the Planning Inspector will look at the council's plan in detail, the evidence behind it and comments received.

To help prepare for the hearing sessions, the Inspector will issue a draft programme by November 29th. Further statements from those involved will be sought by January 10th 2014. In some cases, inspectors will organise meetings prior to the hearing sessions to consider key matters. The Inspector for the East Devon inquiry has, however, decided that a pre-hearing meeting is not necessary and we agree with this conclusion.

Smooth

The programme will set out matters that Mr Thickett considers appropriate for discussion at the hearing sessions. Mr Thickett has already started this process by setting out some of the issues relevant for East Devon Local Plan. Key issues identified for discussion include:

- ◆ a presumption in favour of sustainable development
- ◆ the length of the plan
- ◆ aims and objectives of the plan
- ◆ inclusion of what could be too much material and detail and of consistency between policies.

The inspector has also invited the council to produce topic papers on housing, affordable housing and employment.

Councillor Parr added: "It is common practice for an Inspector to request papers and further material. We trust that the papers we produce on these matters, and indeed any others Mr Thickett may request, will help the smooth and efficient running of the hearing sessions and examination process."

"We recognise that the critical point of the examination is to look at the soundness of our plan and the point behind this is to ensure that planning policy is as good as it can be and is fit for purpose."

"It is extremely beneficial to have an early insight from Mr Thickett and we trust that through the examination process we will be able to ensure that our final plan is sound, robust and as logical as is possible".

Silverworkers looking for new meeting place

A GROUP of enthusiastic silverworkers could find themselves without any to meet after practising their skills for more than 30 years.

For many years the Seaton Silverworkers Club have been meeting in a premises in Woodmead Road, Axminster, owned by Axminster Carpets.

But following the collapse of the former carpet factory and the emergence of the new company, club members have been told they can no longer use the premises.

The eight members of the club get together on a Wednesday once a month and are looking for somewhere to store their equipment and meet in the Axminster Valley.

A new venue the size of a double garage would be fine for which the club is happy to pay a modest rent.

If anyone can help them they should contact Ursula Steer on 01297 33471.

■ SWISS TIME: The students at CERN HQ

Students in awe of the Hadron Collider

A GROUP of Axe Valley Community College sixth form students got involved with top level nuclear research during a trip to Geneva.

The science loving youngsters travelled to the headquarters of CERN, a European joint venture with 20 member states.

CERN stands for Conseil Européen pour la Recherche Nucléaire aka European Council for Nuclear Research.

Among other things, the students had travelled to learn about the world's largest particle accelerator, namely the Large Hadron Collider (LHC) at CERN.

The LHC is described as "a 27-kilometre ring of superconducting magnets with a number of accelerating structures to boost the energy of the particles along the way".

The students also got to visit the control room of an experiment involving The International Space Station.

One of the CERN staff was in contact with NASA and the students got to watch a live feed from the space station.

Some students described aspects of the trip as walking on to the set of a Star Trek movie.

"We were in awe of the huge equipment required for investigating such small particles of matter.

"An opportunity not to be missed if you have a chance to go," said Adele and Fiona Gage.

Kieran Parker and Josh Ambrose added: "CERN gave us the opportunity to get an insight on the wider scientific community and some future possible career paths."

Pub wins taste award for beef and beer pie

AN Axminster pub is one of 17 to have won a Taste of the West Dining Pub Bronze Award for 2013.

Awards are based on secret visits by a judge, who assesses the quality of the food and overall dining experience.

Landlord of the popular Axminster Inn in Silver Street Carey Chant said: "We are extremely pleased to win this award for our food.

"We were judged on our most popular homemade dish, beef in Guinness pie, which is made by landlady Mandy Chant, who has used her own recipe.

"We pride ourselves on great traditional homemade pub food."

Pupils helping to feed town's hungry

■ PUPILS at Axminster Primary School have delivered a huge amount of food to Canned Sunshine, Axminster's foodbank.

Some food had been grown in the school garden but most of it was donated by the pupils and their parents for the annual harvest celebrations.

Aynsley Jones (photographed) of Canned Sunshine collected the food on Thursday October 17th and said: "I'm very impressed by the community spirit.

Parents test school food

■ ABOUT 15 parents accepted an offer to test the food served in Axminster Primary School's canteen.

School catering manager Emma Williams explained that about 50 per cent of pupils eat lunch in the canteen, and added: "We'd like to get it up a bit.

"This is to give them [parents] a taste of our lovely meals.

"School meals have changed quite a bit since they were children.

"Sometimes they need a taster to decide if they want it for their children."

Those who accepted the offer on Wednesday October 2nd were served a roast dinner with plenty of greens.

Katy Letten was one of them. She said before tucking in: "It looks nice. It was a long time since I had a school dinner."

Beer briefs

Change of use

BEER Parish Council has raised no objections to the re-development of Welwyn House in Fore Street.

The council's planning sub-committee discussed the application for change of use at the site of the former Osborne's menswear shop – which relocated to Seaton – from retail (A1) to restaurant and café use (A3).

The councillors also supported the application to install bifold windows opening up onto Fore Street and requested that an extract flue to be of a silenced variety so as not to upset the neighbours.

The planning application will now be considered by the planning authorities at East Devon District Council.

Steamers' movie

BEER Film Society will be showing 'The Place Beyond The Pines' at Steamers restaurant next Monday (October 21st).

The sweeping crime-drama, which unfolds over 15 years, stars Ryan Gosling, Bradley Cooper and Eva Mendes.

Tickets are available on the door from 7pm with the film starting at 7:30pm.

'Fashion Night Out' to be the event of the winter season

GET ready for a night of fashion revelry – Seaton will be having its very first 'Fashion Night Out' on November 1st.

Grove Zero founder Sophie O'Connell and Peekaboo's Becci Fry-Gwyther are working in partnership with the Grove Niteclub to help raise funds for Hospiscare.

Louise Beeken, Community Fundraiser for Hospiscare, said: "What is there not to love about this event. Fashion, beauty, music and a free glass of wine, with the added bonus that you are raising money for a local cause.

"Hospiscare is the local charity caring for people who are living with a terminal illness; helping them and their families through the last few months and days of life.

"We do this through our community nurses who visit families in their homes, our day care centre in Seaton and our hospice in Exeter. We cannot give extra time, but our holistic approach means that we can help people make the most of the time they have together."

Event organiser Sophie O'Connell said: "Hospiscare provides invaluable support to patients and their families through real times of crisis in Seaton and the surrounding area, so we really want to raise as much money as humanly possible for the charity on the night.

"This will be Seaton's very first Fashion Night Out and we want to really mark this occasion by celebrating real women.

"We'll have models in all shapes and sizes showcasing Peekaboo's Winter 2013 collection, and modelling in our beauty demos.

"We also want to use this as an opportunity to show off the talent working in our local salons, and the demos are the perfect way to demonstrate their skills, whilst also allowing everyone to have a bit of fun!

"This will be the second time I have worked with the Grove Niteclub and I am really pleased with the support they are giving us in making Fashion Night Out happen.

"We believe that if done right, not only will this be the event of the winter season, but hopefully the event of future spring/summer and autumn/winter seasons!"

Fashion Night Out is for over 18s only and entry is £10, with 100 per cent of the entry fee going to Hospiscare. Doors will open at 7pm with everyone being welcomed to the venue with a complementary drink. The first 25 people will receive a goody bag.

The night will feature the Peekaboo Winter 2013 collection, hair and beauty demos, music from 10pm-3am, and a photo booth provided by Sue Draycott Photography. Each print will cost £5 with £2 from every print going straight to Hospiscare.

If a night full of fashion indulgence isn't enough, there will also be a prize draw with what Sophie describes as an "Unholy amount of shopping vouchers, alcohol and girly goodies" included in the prizes.

If you would like to find out more information please visit the events Facebook page at <http://on.fb.me/183PkF9> or contact Sophie on 07794 496923.

Twin town visit for youth football team

SEATON Town Youth Football Club is taking two teams to France over Whitsun next year to play football against Seaton's twin town of Thury Harcourt.

Organisers believe this is a great opportunity to get the town's young people involved in twinning, to continue raising the profile of Seaton Town Youth FC in the area, and good team-building exercise.

Paul Grint, chairman of Seaton Youth Football, said: "Initiatives such as this and applying for Charter Standard status all help to reinforce the progress being made with our youth football.

"We now have six teams aged between eight and 15 playing in youth leagues. In addition there is a training group for six and seven year-olds.

"Our objective is to create the right environment for our children to learn and enjoy their football with the club so that they stay on and hopefully come to represent the club at senior level. Over the next six months the club will be raising funds to enable the trip to proceed.

"We hope to raise the necessary funds through a mixture of sponsorship and fundraising."

Sponsors will get recognition through various media including the club's programme and web site and through the local press.

"We hope to get the town behind us and create a real momentum for such a positive initiative," added Mr Grint.

Anyone wishing to contribute to this fund, please contact Paul Grint on 01297 625998 or Under 14s manager Tony Bartlett on 07763 891705.

Fundraiser makes more than £1,300

THE Seaton and Axmouth branch of Cancer Research UK raised £1,335.31 at its jumble sale in Seaton Town Hall on Saturday, September 28th.

Branch member Paula Vickers said: "A thank you to all of our supporters, helpers and those who donated so many goods to us.

"If anyone would like to join our team, please call me on 01297 23217."

ADVERTISERS ANNOUNCEMENT

Deadly dog disease across the UK

LOCAL veterinary surgeon Tess Sprayson from Archie's Vet Practice in Aylesbeare is warning dog owners to be on the lookout for a potentially fatal disease caused by infection from the lungworm parasite (Angiostrongylus vasorum).

A pointer cross from Exmouth was recently treated for the parasite at the practice, after evidence of lungworm damage was discovered during a CT scan. The dog was initially brought into the practice with presenting symptoms of coughing, generalised pain and appearing generally depressed. He also spends a lot of time at his owner's small holding near Honiton so it is unknown where he picked up the infection. Last year's damp summer and mild winter conditions have proved ideal for slug and snail populations, leading experts to warn of a continued spread of lungworm in the UK.

One third (33 per cent) of dog owners admitted they don't know how their dog can become infected with lungworm and half have said they don't believe their dog is at risk.

Lungworm is a parasite that dogs become infected with after eating common garden slugs and snails carrying the larvae. Once inside the dog's system, the parasite travels through the body eventually ending up in the heart. If the infection is left untreated, the dog's health can rapidly deteriorate, and can even result in death.

To help raise awareness of the parasite, Tess is joining other vets and owners nationwide in support of the national 'Be Lungworm Aware' campaign. The scheme offers support and education to owners and vet practices.

Tess, who runs a newly opened practice in the area, explains: "Dogs which have picked up a lungworm infection can show a number of different symptoms. Lungworm often gives rise to breathing difficulties, ranging from a lack of energy to coughing. Dogs may also show general signs of being unwell including weight loss, reduced appetite and vomiting. Persistent bleeding, even from minor cuts is also a sign to watch out for. However, the symptoms can be varied and some dogs may appear healthy in the early stages of infection, so if owners are concerned about their dog's health, they should contact their veterinary practice for further advice".

Routine use of a specific treatments, available from veterinary surgeons, prevents dogs from developing a lungworm infection. To ensure protection against lungworm, as well as other parasitic worms, owners are urged to adopt a comprehensive worming regime, which can be easily developed with their vet.

Tess Sprayson is encouraging dog owners to contact their local veterinary practice for further information, or to discuss their dog's parasite protection plan. A breakthrough test for lungworm is now available through many vets, including Archie's Vet Practice in Aylesbeare. The IDEXX Angio Detect™ will, for the first time, allow veterinary surgeons to detect the parasite in-clinic with almost immediate results.

"Everyone who works at Archie's treat their dogs monthly against lungworm. It is not a disease to ignore, and we suggest all dog owners do similarly.

Sociology students win third place in national competition

TWO Sidmouth College Students have won a top place in a British Sociological Association national competition.

At the end of Year 12, the college's A-level sociology students all entered the competition, with Alice Reading and Oliver Down both being placed third. The college described their placing as "a fantastic achievement".

Alice explained: "In pairs or as individuals, we all worked hard to produce a video, presentation or a piece of writing to answer the question 'Why is sociology important today?'."

"I worked with Oliver and the two of us decided to be a little more, well, unorthodox with our essay and so weren't too confident about our prospects for success – so you can imagine how surprised we were when we came third!

"We've never had quite an achievement! It was nice to see that everyone got a reward for their efforts, too, and the sociology department was very happy with the recognition the BSA gave us all. It was a great experience for us and we hope to enter another competition in the future."

Sociology teacher Mrs Dean and Mrs Jenkins were delighted at the efforts all students put into the task. The quality of entries was reflected in the fact that every student won the prize of a t-shirt.

New set up for student council

SIDMOUTH College's new student council members have been elected and are full of ideas.

Supported by teachers Mrs Jenkins and Miss Hindmarsh, and having researched and observed how successful student councils operate in other schools, this year's council members have decided to adopt a new approach in their representation of students at the college.

The first part of this process got underway recently with the allocation of specific roles to each member.

Student council publicity officer, Alastair Papworth, explained: "At our student council meeting we allocated a specific job to each member of the council."

The new chairperson for the council is Lyriss Richards, a previous school council member. As an 'old' member, we felt Lyriss had the experience needed for being the new chairperson for 2013.

Alongside Lyriss is the vice-chairperson, and this role has been taken on by Katrina North. The secretaries for the council are Zoe Smith and Harriet Slater and their job will be to take notes in council meetings, inform student representatives of any changes to meetings times or locations, and ensure the conference room is always left tidy after meetings.

"Adam Loker and Sophie Latheron have been appointed as treasurers and will manage our budget and suggest fundraising ideas and events.

"Finally, we appointed a number of publicity officers who have a variety of roles. Chloe Towers, Ollie Moore-Jones and Mary-Jayne Babington will be responsible for the creation of posters and flyers."

"Harriet Slater will be responsible for the student council notice board which will publicise our news and events to the rest of the school. Finally, myself and Ellie Hattrell have taken on responsibility for communications in the media and the college newsletter."

"We hope that our new set up will help make Sidmouth College student council more efficient and productive and that we will be better able to assist and advise Mr Duncan on students' suggested improvements for the college."

Did you see this article? The Office of Fair Trading is after retailers who artificially inflate prices to then offer massive discounts. At Wells Carpets we have never done this. Our prices are genuinely low all year round. We encourage our customers to compare our prices with these 'discount merchants' in the knowledge that our honest prices will be better. We have maintained this policy for 30 years. It's the bottom line that counts. Isn't it good to know you are getting exactly what you are paying for?

By Francesca Evans
francesca@pemedial.co.uk

COLYTON Link held its annual tea party on Wednesday afternoon, with about 100 residents from Colyton and Colyford attending.

The tea party is not a fundraiser for the charity, but an annual treat open to all local residents.

Guests tucked into sandwiches, cakes and tea. This was followed by entertainment named "Fresh Air and Fun" - words and music by Jilly Spencer, Colin Nott-Bower with Michèle Banting on piano. There was also a free raffle.

Colyton Link is a local charity, providing residents with the Link Lines booklet of useful numbers and a hospital car service. It has representatives in all areas of the parish who look out for their neighbours and report local issues, and the charity sends out get well cards to residents in hospital.

Talk on St Kilda at Honiton Probus

THE members of Honiton Probus Club, at their meeting on September 26th, greatly enjoyed an illustrated talk by local retired farmer Tom Coleman.

Tom's subject was "St Kilda - Islands at the Edge of the World" a place he spent two weeks at some 10 years ago.

St Kilda is an isolated archipelago 40 miles west-north west of North Uist in the North Atlantic Ocean. It may have been permanently inhabited for at least two millennia but the entire remaining population was evacuated in 1930.

Currently, the only year-round residents are defence personnel and a variety of conservation workers, volunteers and scientists spend time there in the summer months.

Owned by the National Trust for Scotland, it became one of Scotland's five World Heritage Sites in 1986.

Tom has the knack of making his subjects come alive, the talk was both educational and entertaining.

The Honiton Probus Club now meets at the Honiton Inn, Awliscombe, on the last Thursday of the month.

For details are available on the website <http://bit.ly/1641fo2>. New members are very welcome, contact the club secretary John Hicks on 01404 43392.

Club members learn value of good hearing

GOOD hearing is something that most of us take for granted, but there are many people who suffer from some degree of hearing loss.

As a group of retired men, Seaton and District men's Probus Club includes several members whose hearing is impaired due to age, but there are other causes such as exposure to loud noise at work or in leisure activities, illness, injury or even the effects of medication.

In an interesting presentation given by John Mackenzie, an audiologist at Exmouth Hearing Centre, members also learnt about the symptoms and what to look (or listen) out for, and the remedies which are available.

The talk gave many members food for thought as well as some practical advice, and the number of questions raised at the end made it clear that this is an important subject for the group.

Whether or not you enjoy perfect hearing, retired men in the area who would like to join the club are very welcome to come along for one of our meetings which are held fortnightly from now until the end of April.

It is an excellent way to get to know others and make new friends. As well as the regular meetings, which usually include a speaker, there is a programme of outings and visits to local restaurants during the year.

For further information contact Keith West on 01297 624374.

Olympic equestrian champion to speak at lunch club

THE Lunch Club at the Fairwater Head Hotel in Hawkchurch is looking forward to a very special guest speaking at its November meeting.

Local equestrian sportswoman, Olympic champion and an icon of British Eventing, Mary King MBE, will speak at the Lunch Club on Friday, November 1st.

From 1992 to 2012 Mrs King has represented Great Britain at six Olympics and also competed at the World

Equestrian Games, European Eventing Championships, British Open Championships, Badminton Horse Trials and Burghley Horse Trials.

Mrs King, from Salcombe Regis near Sidmouth, will give a brief talk about her career, answer members' questions and will also be signing copies of her autobiography.

Anyone who would like to attend the lunch should contact the hotel on 01297 678349 for more details.

Special visitor at Rotary meeting

■ DISTRICT Governor of Rotary in Devon, Barry Rendal-Jones, and his wife Rotarian Wendy, made an official visit to Axminster Rotary Club's recent meeting. Speaking to members of the local club, Mr Rendal-Jones outlined some of the issues affecting communities around the world, and how Rotary could help. In particular, he explained how the public were clear that Rotary were certain to ensure that every pound collected by a Rotarian went to the charity and was not syphoned off by "middle men" before it arrived. He explained how the Rotary campaign to end polio throughout the world had almost achieved its objective, with a difficult area being targetted in some of the very rural areas of the Indian sub-continent. World Polio day was being held on October 24th. At the conclusion to the meeting, members gathered for a group photograph (pictured above).

Firefighters were called at 10.35am on Monday, October 7th and two appliances from Chard were dispatched.

A spokesperson for the fire and rescue service said: "The fire was believed to be out and crews used a thermal imaging camera to ensure the fire was extinguished."

MONEY has been stolen from a honesty box at Scouse Lane in Hawkchurch.

The theft took place overnight between October 7th and 8th.

Anyone with information that may help police is asked to call the force switchboard on 101. The crime reference is KA/13/551.

College hosts second Minster Challenge

RUNNERS of all ages turned up for Axe Valley Community College's second annual Minster Challenge on Sunday, October 6th.

The main run, a gruelling multi-terrain race of seven miles plus, was won by Julian Ridgley from Taunton Running Club in a time of 51.14.

The first lady across the finishing line, college staff member Amy Greenhalgh, registered a time of 56.24.

Despite glorious sunshine, conditions were such that a number of runners saw their shoes coming off when getting stuck in mud, losing vital seconds as they recovered their footwear.

A total of 69 runners completed the main race.

The second race, a fun run of approximately three miles, was won by Ollie Caute in 20.25, and the first girl to finish was Tasmin Edge in 21.18.

Strong competition between staff at the college meant that all of them managed personal bests - Martin Smith in 1.06.32, Jon Scott in 59.03, Tony Davies in 1.00.34 and John Mythen 1.17.35. Dave Owen didn't run last year but crossed the line in 1.20.02.

New this year was the mini run for the under 11s, held on the college sports field.

The race was included in the programme to encourage fitness from a young age, and was won by Sharna Edge.

Spectators enjoyed performances from Karizma Majorettes and the school's steel band while tummies were filled with an array of cakes and bacon rolls served by the college's parents, teachers and friends' association.

The Minster Challenge is held to raise funds for the college's PE department. Organisers Sara Feldman and Diane Roberts both said: "We would like to thank everybody who took part and for all the help provided to make it such a fantastic event, particularly Axe Valley Runners for their time and energy."

The event raised approximately £1,300.

Tesco's arrival and low visitor numbers not just a coincidence, museum argues

■ IN the words of dear old Max Bygraves, "I wanna tell you a story..."

Up until Seaton holiday camp closed, Seaton Museum visitor numbers, which dated back to 1995, varied between 4,500 and 6,000.

When the camp closed to be replaced by the Tesco store, visitor numbers dropped to between 2,000 and 2,500. Was this just a coincidence or maybe something else?

May I remind D. Hislop (Pulman's View, October 1st) constructive criticism is always welcome and we always welcome positive ideas.

TED GOSLING,
Museum Curator and first Freeman of Seaton

■ WITH reference to the letter from D. Hislop (Pulman's View, October 1st, "Museum should not blame Tesco"): the museum is a small, free establishment that is run by volunteers and is totally reliant on donations from visitors for its expenses. There it is very important.

It is a point of fact that the arrival of Tesco closed the holiday camp, which had 400 beds worth of potential visitors each week. Secondly, many visiting coach loads are directed to the toilets, coffee shop and Tesco and do not set foot in the town centre.

These are the reason the visitor numbers are down. Tesco is, therefore, a cause rather than a blame target.

I fail to understand why D. Hislop chose to bring this into the public domain unless he/she needed a platform to "bash" the museum.

The museum curator, Ted Gosling, is present in the museum every Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday mornings and, apart from being a mine of local information, is only too happy to discuss with any interested party any concerns they may have regarding the running of the museum.

Finally, the writer had a valid point regarding the lack of signage at the coach part, which has been raised before with no result but will be again.

DAVID FIELD,
Trustee, Seaton Museum

■ I REALLY do have to take issue with Mr Hislop's letter regarding Seaton Museum (Pulman's View, October 1st).

He should go to the museum and look in the visitors' book and he would see there is nothing but praise. We know the numbers have gone down, particularly since the closure of the holiday camp and Blue Waters, and the Tesco effect is shown in Seaton as a whole.

The museum curator, Ted Gosling, and his helpers are to be congratulated for all the work they do to make the museum so great and it is no wonder it was classed as one of the best smaller museums.

Whenever we go back "home" to see family and friends, a visit to the museum is a must. My husband's grandfather built the town hall and we have a lot of interested in this building and, although the museum is small, it has been filled with so much interest and information.

It's well advertised in the information centre and many other places, including the museum's brochure, and I congratulate everyone who is helping to make this such an excellent venue.

We left Seaton for Torbay to be nearer our grandchildren but will always be members of the museum, and it was only couple of weeks ago that we were able to enjoy a lovely cream tea with more than 40 members here in Torbay for one of their Sunday tours.

I wish everyone concerned with the museum all the luck in the world for keeping this very important museum open.

JUNE RICHARD,
Paignton

Is there an underlying issue at Seaton council?

■ SEATON people are increasingly wondering exactly what the problem is with our town council, in light of the resignation of the latest incumbent in the position of town clerk.

Mike Neale's untimely departure and the succession of persons holding briefly the well-paid post of town clerk to date rightly concerns us. As you reported Councillor Tony Woodman saying, this is our money which is repeatedly being spent on recruitment.

If there is an underlying problem with the post, or the council, or the working conditions, or anything else, then I think we should be told, so that lessons can be learned and changes made so that we can get a new town clerk in place, who is prepared to commit long-term to work to turn Seaton's fortunes around. There is no time to lose.

Obviously if Mr Neale's departure is due to private and personal (e.g. medical) reasons, then we need not know. Otherwise, what has Gaynor Sedgwick and the town council got to hide?

RACHEL MASON,
Seaton

Take traffic out of Axminster

■ THE solution to Axminster's eyesore problems, and specifically The George, is surely not demolition of a historic listed building to accommodate traffic (Pulman's View, October 8th).

Surely the solution would be to take the traffic out of Axminster which would then make the town centre infinitely more attractive to people and businesses which, presumably, would then see The George, Webster's, etc. as opportunities.

NEIL GOLDER,
Smallridge

Excellent entertainment in Axe Valley

■ FOR such a small area the Axe Valley has a lot of talented people.

We have been entertained this year with music in the Arts Café, Minster Church, Dalwood Music Day, and the "One Night Only" show. Drama clubs and opera societies put on excellent shows and, of course, we have the "Best in the West" carnivals.

So many individuals giving up their time freely to perform, also people behind the scenes organising the events. As the song says "If You're Happy and You Know It, Clap Your Hands" - I think all the entertainers and organisers deserve a big round of applause.

Saving Lives at Sea in Dorset

WHEN the mast of a 120-year-old sail-training vessel came crashing down in rough seas and gale force winds off Portland Bill, Weymouth RNLI Coxswain Andy Sargent and his crew aboard Weymouth's Ernest and Mabel raced to their aid. Andy and his six crew members rushed to the station and were heading out to sea in less than ten minutes from receiving the call.

The 24m Brixham trawler Leader is run by Devon based Trinity Sailing Foundation who offer disadvantaged young people the chance to sail. With winds gusting up to 40 knots she had been sailing south of the Bill when her main mast snapped, bringing her rigging, sail and boom, crashing into the water.

Remarkably, no-one was hurt. But, unable to control the boat following the dismasting, the Brixham trawler had started to drift into the Race, an area of dangerous currents off the Bill.

Andy said: 'The mast was broken and the rigging was in the water on the vessel's port side, so the crew had to deal with this first so it didn't become a hazard to the Leader or to us. They secured the debris alongside the casualty boat as best they could in the conditions and then having determined that no one was injured we secured a tow line.'

'They couldn't use their engine as the gear and rigging was in the water and could have got caught around the propeller.' Due to the rough weather it took five hours for the volunteer lifeboat crew to tow the 1892 wooden sailing ketch Leader, safely back to port.

Rescues such as this are only made possible thanks to the generosity of RNLI supporters. The RNLI are grateful for all the support they receive from people generously donating their money or time, however, legacies are critical to the future of the RNLI and to saving lives. The sea will always be a danger and the RNLI will always be needed to rescue those in trouble.

Many people think that legacies are only for the wealthy, but anyone can leave a gift in their Will to their favourite charity. Any gift, whether it pays for a pair of boots or a boat is gratefully received. Of course it's important that you take care of loved ones first, but the RNLI are asking people to consider the difference a gift could make to the lifeboat crews. It's surprisingly easy to do.

To the RNLI, legacies are a lifeline. A legacy is much more than a gift left in a Will, it's the lifeboat that launches to answer a call for help, the training that helps the volunteer crews reach a vessel in distress and the rope that pulls someone of the water to safety.

To find out more about how to leave a gift to the RNLI please call Legacy Manager Mark Allwood on 01202 663032, or visit rnli.org.uk/legacy

DARRELL Holmes writes from Kilmington: "A couple came to the church office during the week saying they were hoping to retire to Colyton. They asked about the area and about our church congregation.

"Then, on the following Sunday, they came to the church service and immediately found a lot in common with various members of the congregation.

"Being part of the church is like being part of an extended family – one which not only spreads across the UK, but right around the world. Church congregations not only provide a welcome to those moving into an area, they provide support and encouragement to local people week by week.

"If anyone feels lonely, they should try going along to their local congregation. Not only will they find people who are interested in them, even better they will find God who is interested in them, and loves them deeply."

INSPIRING WOMEN

Women's Institutes ROUND UP

AXMINSTER – NEW BRANCH

A MEETING is to be held tonight (Tuesday) to form a new WI in Axminster.

The meeting will be held at the Methodist Church Hall in Lyme Street from 7.30pm to 9.30pm.

Devon Federation of Women's Institutes had so much interest shown at the recent Axe Vale Show that forming a WI branch in the town was the obvious next step.

During the evening, there will be a presentation about the WI, which is the largest voluntary organisation for women in the UK with over 210,000 members in more than 6,500 institutes spread across 69 county and island federations.

Information will also be given on the opportunities the WI offers all women to enjoy friendship, to learn, to widen their horizons and together to influence national and international affairs.

There will be a lively talk by a WI member on her entertaining and unusual experiences as an art teacher, and refreshments will be served during the evening.

Devon has 231 WIs and the county federation always welcomes the opportunity to form new ones.

COLYFORD

MEMBERS of Colyford WI enjoyed a most interesting talk on herbaceous plants by Peter Cantrell, who runs Dayspring Nursery, a wholesale nursery near Exeter Airport.

Peter brought some wonderful plants with him that were currently in flower and they made a beautiful display.

Members were thanked for the cakes for the Goose Fayre and details were given of the sponsored walk on behalf of FORCE, in which some members recently took part.

The latest Chatterbox meeting included coffee and cakes at Burrow Farm Garden and details were given of the next meeting at Joshua, Ottery St Mary.

It was agreed that the trip to Tyntesfield was a huge success, and members were very lucky with the weather.

Diaries were being filled, with details of up-and-coming trips to "Calendar Girls" at Sidmouth, Ladies that Lunch at the Blue Ball, Sidford, the Devon Council Meeting in Plymouth and a trip to a Christmas market at Winchester given.

Maddy Price won the competition and Angela Parker Flower of the Month.

The next meeting will be on Wednesday, November 6th and visitors will be most welcome.

MUSBURY & WHITFORD

THE Musbury & Whitford WI October meeting was held on Tuesday, October 8th in Whitford Village Hall.

As it was the branch's Harvest Supper, the business was kept to the bare minimum, apologies taken and birthday posies given. Mention was made of the Accommodation List and WI centenary celebrations in 2015.

Members then got on with the fun. Most people had brought along homemade musical instruments and these were divided into orchestras by table, each with a conductor. The meeting then descended into chaos, each band playing a tune to be recognised!

Members then enjoyed their supper, including homemade soup and apple pies. The winning pie was made by Anne Midgley who now has to recreate it for the group meeting as the group's entry for the competition.

The group meeting will be held on Friday, October 25th at Musbury Village Hall. Homemade biscuits and helpers are needed and the speaker is from Escot House and Park.

The next branch meeting is on Tuesday, November 12th, 7.30pm at Whitford Village Hall when the speaker will be Rob Corbett, on Musbury's Castlewood Vineyard, as usual, all are most welcome.

Plans to stop marathon development meetings

PLANS to streamline East Devon District Council Development Management Committee (DMC) have been referred to that very committee for comment.

Proposals were drawn up by EDDC officers to avoid a repeat of marathon meetings lasting up to 13 hours. Among other things, officers proposed to only allow a 15-minute period of public speaking for each application, which in effect would mean two supporters and two objectors.

In effect, this would limit the amount of public speaking allowed as, currently, any member of the public can turn up and register to speak for a maximum of three minutes on any application.

The proposals were debated by EDDC's Standards Committee on Wednesday, October 9th and it was decided to seek the opinion of DMC members before taking the matter to full council.

Draft minutes of the meeting said: "Due to the length of recent Development Management Committee meetings, members of that committee be asked to consider future agenda and meeting management."

Public speaking proposals for other committees were referred to cabinet.

New look library set to open

SIDMOUTH'S new-look library opens its doors to the public at 9am next Wednesday (October 23rd) after major refurbishment and improvement work.

The library will have a flexible layout so that space can be used for a wider variety of purposes and activities at different times.

There will also be improved access for children, young people and their families, including moving the children's library from the mezzanine floor to the ground floor and creating a more attractive 'teen zone'.

In addition, there will be a dedicated quiet reading and study area, and the general ambience of the library will be improved by making it brighter and more welcoming for visitors.

Money has been set aside to purchase new stock for the library, so the choice of books will also be improved and a new layout for the shelving will make the library easier to navigate.

For visitors who can't wait, a preview afternoon has been arranged for people to drop in between 2pm and 4pm, the day before (Tuesday, October 22nd), and have a look at the new facilities. Refreshments will be available.

Councillor Roger Croad, Devon County Council's Cabinet Member for Communities, said: "This refurbishment will create an improved space with a brighter look and feel which will broaden the library's appeal not only for existing users but also for the wider community."

"Where we have invested already in our libraries and now provide a wider range of services of interest to local people, library membership figures have risen, and I'm sure this revamp will turn Sidmouth Library into a modern and flexible facility that is fit for the changing needs of the community and that everyone wants to use and can be proud of."

Councillor Stuart Hughes, Devon County Council's local member for Sidmouth, said: "I've been looking forward to seeing the transformation of the library into one fit for the 21st Century, and I'm sure visitor numbers next week will be through the roof with people wanting to see the improvements."

"I'm confident that it will attract even greater usage by people of all ages."

To our valued customers, after five happy years at the Wheelwright Inn we are now leaving in order to focus our attention on our newest acquisition, the Harbour Inn at Axmouth.

We would like to take the opportunity to thank everyone who has visited us since 2008 and shown their support. We would like you to all visit us at the Harbour Inn at Axmouth where we and our passionate team, including long standing managers Sarah and Helen will all continue delivering award-winning food and friendly service.

This winter will see the launch of our loyalty card scheme, which will reward our regular patrons with special deals on both delicious food and drink, all of which can be enjoyed in front of one of the two roaring log fires.

The support of the local community means a great deal to us and we look forward to seeing you all at our new home at the Harbour Inn at Axmouth

New Axminster bakery goes from strength to strength

SINCE opening at the end of June this year, Wheatfields, the new bakery in South Street in Axminster, has gone from strength to strength. The business is owned by Des Grant, of Des Grant Plumbing and Heating, and his wife, Paula.

Paula has been running the shop full time since it's opening, and employed Sandy on a part time basis to help out after she was made redundant from Axminster carpets. However, as business has increased through word of mouth, Paula has had to increase Sandy's hours and she now joins Paula in the shop working full time, and keeps things running smoothly whilst Paula is out delivering to local businesses.

Freshly made sandwiches and other goodies made by Wheatfields are available to buy from other local businesses, such as Tower Services in Seaton, Millers Farm Shop, near Axminster, and Millwey SPAR.

Wheatfields pride themselves on the fact that they use local produce wherever possible. They sell eggs from Des and Paula's

“Wheatfields are also proud to announce their Food Hygiene Rating of '5, Very Good' from the Food Standards Agency.”

Funeral Directors & Monumental Masons East Devon Family Funeral Directors win Top Accolade

FAMILY Funeral Directors W. G. Potter (Axminster), Overmass & Chapple (Seaton) and E. A. Dodd & Son (Honiton) have been named one of the UK's best funeral directors following an assessment visit by the Good Funeral Guide, an independent funeral consumer advocacy organisation.

In its review of the Good Funeral Guide says:

"All the feel of a family funeral director and all the hallmarks of an extremely well-run business with a very big heart. Funeral homes that are in tune with its community staffed by exceptionally kind and knowledgeable people you will feel comfortable with.

They will treat you fairly -- they are passionate about straight dealing. Their pricing structure is transparent and is posted on their website. They will not sting you for hidden extras."

Find the full review here:
www.goodfuneralguide.co.uk/funeral-directors

The Good Funeral Guide assesses select funeral homes according to strict criteria which focus on the quality of the experience they offer to bereaved people. W. G. Potter, Overmass & Chapple and E. A. Dodd & Son have been inspected to ensure that clients are treated with courtesy, listened to with empathy, offered a full range of choice, charged fairly and empowered to play whatever part they want in creating a send-off for the person they have lost which accords with their values and wishes.

The accreditation process also involved spending time behind the scenes in order to ascertain that those who have died are cared for with the utmost tenderness and respect.

Charles Cowling, author of the Good Funeral Guide says: "Choosing a funeral director can be very difficult because they all look much the same. But they're not. Some, a precious few, are truly outstanding, and these companies are.

"The team are unsung heroes doing a magnificent job, and the people of East Devon deserve to know this. Bereaved people need to do their very best for their loved one. They deserve the very best funeral director."

Julian Hussey says "We are incredibly proud to have received this accreditation to further the Dignified, Professional & Caring Service we offer the families"

Michelle Hague Grief and loss

MOST people grieve when they lose something or someone important to them. Grieving for the loss can feel unbearable, and it may often feel that you are alone.

How does grief make you feel?

The way grief affects you will be unique to you and depends on many things, such as the nature of the loss, your age, your relationships, and your health.

You can react in many ways to a loss.

For many people grief consists of several combined emotions, anxiety and helplessness often come first. Anger is common, and is seen as a natural part of the grieving process, and you shouldn't feel guilty about it then sadness, which for many comes much later.

Being aware that these emotions are common can help you to accept them. It is very important to know that they will pass. Everyone is unique some people take a lot longer than others to adjust and it is important to recognize that while many may understand they do not know what you are feeling or going through, only you do.

Dealing with the emotions

Grief requires a period of adjustment, there is no right or wrong time to adjust, be patient.

If you find that after time you are not moving on, eighteen months or longer after a major loss, there are some practical things you can do to help get through the loss:

Talking is often a good way to soothe painful emotions. Talking to a friend, family member, health professional or therapist can help you begin the healing process.

Give your self permission and allow yourself to feel sad. It's a healthy part of the grieving process.

Sleep, the lack of proper rest can make you very tired. If you're having trouble sleeping, Hypnotherapy can help.

Avoid things that appear to take away the pain, such as alcohol. It will make you feel worse and is addictive.

Michelle Hague is a professional clinical and cognitive behavioural hypnotherapist now working with mindfulness, and may be able to help. Call on 07761773563

Frankenstein screening at The Gateway

Two encore screenings of National Theatre Live's award-winning Frankenstein performance

See page 26

Another terrific trio of shows at The Gateway

THE GATEWAY at Seaton Town Hall has a busy line-up of performances and screenings this month, including top Queen tribute The Bohemians, as well as two National Theatre Live screenings.

NTL's 2010 broadcast of Hamlet returns to screens as part of the National Theatre's 50th anniversary celebrations, and will be shown at The Gateway on Tuesday, October 22nd.

Following his celebrated performances at the National Theatre in Burnt by the Sun, The Revenger's Tragedy, Othello and The Man of Mode, Rory Kinnear plays Hamlet in a dynamic production of Shakespeare's complex and profound play about the human condition. Rory is joined by Clare Higgins (Gertrude), Patrick Malahide (Claudius), David Calder (Polonius), James Laurenson (Ghost/Player King) and Ruth Negga (Ophelia).

Doors open at 6pm on Tuesday, October 22nd, and the performance starts at 7pm.

The Bohemians, established in 1996, re-enact the glory days of Queen including the craziness of the 70s and the magic of the 80s, proving themselves to be the most dynamic and exciting Queen Tribute Band currently touring.

Rob Comber's outrageous stage antics and personality makes him the perfect Freddie. Christopher Gregory's Red Special enables him to get as close as possible to Brian May's inimitable style; Wayne Bourne hammers the tubs like drummer Roger Taylor; and Kevin Goodwin provides that unmistakable Queen backline on bass.

Their high-energy two hour show with full staging, lighting, backdrops and pyrotechnics has earned them the reputation of being the world's most exciting Queen Tribute act.

All the greatest hits are played with aplomb and authenticity - The Bohemians ability to recreate Queen live is something truly special, and you can see them in action at The Gateway on Saturday, October 26th, with doors opening 7.30pm.

National Theatre Live's 2011 broadcast of Frankenstein also returns as part of the National Theatre's 50th anniversary celebrations.

Frankenstein enjoyed a sell-out run at the National Theatre, and went on to win awards including the 2012 Olivier Award for Best Actor for Benedict Cumberbatch and Jonny Lee Miller.

Oscar-winner Danny Boyle (Trainspotting, Slumdog Millionaire) directs a sensational production with Benedict Cumberbatch (Star Trek: Into Darkness, BBC's Sherlock) and Jonny Lee Miller (Trainspotting, CBS's Elementary) alternating roles as Victor Frankenstein and his creation.

Childlike in his innocence but grotesque in form, Frankenstein's bewildered creature is cast out into a hostile universe by his horror-struck maker. Meeting with cruelty wherever he goes, the friendless

DON'T STOP ME NOW | The Bohemians

Creature, increasingly desperate and vengeful, determines to track down his creator and strike a terrifying deal.

Urgent concerns of scientific responsibility, parental neglect, cognitive development and the nature of good and evil are embedded within this thrilling and deeply disturbing classic gothic tale.

The first of two encore screenings of Frankenstein aptly takes place on Thursday, October 31st, where The Gateway will host a theatrical Halloween themed evening. A second screening takes place on Thursday, November 28th. Doors open at 6pm, and the performance starts at 7pm for both performances.

Tickets for each of the National Theatre Live events, and The Bohemians, cost £12.50 each in advance, and £15 on the door. A licensed bar will be available. Tickets are available from Town Hall Box Office or by calling 01297 625699.

Nicholas Martin delights on Beer Wurlitzer Organ

"WHAT a show! It was a pleasure and a privilege to be in the audience to hear Nicholas Martin play on Beer's Mighty Wurlitzer Theatre Organ" - glowing praise from one of the audience who saw Nicholas perform on Saturday, October 12th. Nicholas is one of the UK's foremost concert and recording organists and had travelled from Leicestershire to give an outstanding afternoon's entertainment to a very appreciative audience. Nicholas played a wonderful variety of favourite tunes, including many audience requests - the Wurlitzer is sounding better than ever and it was a great afternoon!

Nicholas Martin, as well as being a top-class organist, has co-founded a charity called 'Miracles to Believe in' which supports autistic children. Through his musical performances, he has raised a huge sum for this charity which is close to his heart as both his sons suffer from severe autism - all present were happy to contribute to the fund.

The Friends of the Beer Wurlitzer would like to thank the increasing number of folk who come to the shows, some from the immediate locality but also those who travel much longer distances. This support enables the continued improvement of the oldest Wurlitzer in the UK, and Beer is indeed fortunate to have such a major attraction.

The final show in the 2013 programme will be on Saturday, November 30th, at the Congregational Church, Fore Street, Beer, when a fun afternoon is guaranteed. Byron Jones will be returning to get the audience in the party spirit for Christmas with a magical afternoon of music. Everyone is welcome and organisers hope for a bumper turn out - admittance is £6 on the door, to include interval refreshments. For further information please visit www.beerwurlitzer.org.uk.

'Tex' and 'Cajun' come to Awliscombe

Noel 'Tex' Harrison and 'Cajun' Phil Rossiter will perform a concert of country music in Awliscombe this October.

Noel "Tex" Harrison is best known to VIA audiences as the original "Windmills of Your Mind" man, whose Oscar winning worldwide hit from the 1968 film "The Thomas Crown Affair" launched him into super-stardom. Noel has always loved country music and Tex-Mex. Finding someone as enthusiastic and talented as Phil to pick and grin with has been a great delight.

Phil Rossiter (aka Cajun Phil) has been singing and playing music since... well - a long time a long time ago! He currently plays guitar, mandolin and button accordion. Apart from having a good time with Noel Harrison, he also works with other bands, including a gypsy and swing jazz group, and K-Zee Zydeco Band - an Exeter based 6 piece zydeco and Cajun music outfit playing creole music from Louisiana.

Phil met Noel when K-Zee played for Noel's second wife's birthday party. Recognising a kindred spirit, he has had the great fortune to work with Noel for a few years now. Phil played with Noel's band at the 2011 Glastonbury Festival Come and enjoy a great Villages in Action event in St Michael's Awliscombe at 7.30pm on Saturday, October 26th. Tickets are available from David Chipington (01404 43480, adults £7, children £5, and family tickets £20.

Operatic Society's next show will be wunderbar!

MEMBERS of Axminster Operatic Society are busy rehearsing for their next show, Cole Porter's Kiss Me, Kate. Directed and choreographed by Denise Churchett and Musical Director Rob Preece with great songs such as "Wunderbar," "Too Darn Hot" and "Brush up your Shakespeare."

This show has it all – great songs, dancing and a good plot – who could ask for more. The Society will once again be performing in the Guildhall in Axminster from Wednesday, November 20th until Saturday, November 23rd at 7.30pm and also a matinee performance on the Saturday. Ticket prices remain the same as last year and we are hoping for a sell-out audience on every night as this show is such a popular one."

Kiss Me Kate's plot revolves around the production of a musical version of William Shakespeare's The Taming of the Shrew and the conflict on and off-stage between Fred Graham, the show's director, producer, and star, and his leading lady, his ex-wife Lilli Vanessi. A secondary romance concerns Lois Lane, the actress playing Bianca, and her gambler boyfriend, Bill, who runs into trouble with some gangsters.

This year's photo shoot was held in the Italianate Garden at Mapperton Gardens, by kind permission of the Earl and Countess of Sandwich, and was an ideal location for this show.

Tickets will be on sale from October 20th 2013 at Archway Bookshop in Axminster tel. (01297) 33595.

Classics Galore

TICKETS are on sale for the hugely popular Classics Galore concert in aid of the cancer charity FORCE - and the message is to get in early as it's expected to be a sell-out again this year.

The musical extravaganza takes place at Exeter University's Great Hall on Saturday November 9th at 7.30pm.

Classics Galore is staged every two years and since 2007 it has raised more than £35,000 for FORCE. It is now established as one of Exeter's largest indoor concerts, attracting well over a thousand people each time.

Lymington SW Telecoms Brass Band, the Ottery St Mary Choral Society and members of St David's Players will once again perform alongside soloists Penny Daw (soprano) and Mark Hurford (tenor).

For the first time, the show will feature a specially selected Classics Galore Symphony Orchestra, comprising 50 top musicians from Exeter and East Devon. The stage at the Great Hall will be extended to accommodate more than 200 musicians and singers.

Classics Galore was founded by cancer patient Dick Passmore and his wife, Rosemary. But after the 2011 concert they decided to stand down from organizing the event, although they are still on hand to offer advice.

The Passmores' successful format remains the same – the concert is specially arranged for those with an interest in the lighter side of classical music. Each item is around seven or eight minutes long and is usually immediately recognisable. The odd theme tune from radio and television mixes seamlessly with works by classical composers – so there is something for everyone.

As well as the usual Proms-style finale when concertgoers are encouraged to join in with rousing favourites Jerusalem, Rule Britannia and Land of Hope and Glory, there will also be an audience participation section in the first half of the show. Since the concert is on the eve of Remembrance Sunday, this will be reflected in a wartime medley of tunes that is guaranteed to engage the audience. Popular golden oldies Pack up Your Troubles, We'll Meet Again and White Cliffs of Dover will feature in a section entitled Classics Galore Remembers.

Tickets are available from Exeter Visitor Information and Tickets (EVIT) at Dix's Field.

Burma comes to Lyme Regis

NORTHERN International Theatre brings a compelling performance to Lyme's Marine Theatre on Friday, October 18th.

'The Burma Play, a comedy of terror' is a humorous, politically-sharp two-hander with original live music. Virtuoso performances run through the years of empire and dictatorship towards the current hopes and fears of the Burmese people.

A popular entertainer struggles to restore his damaged memory by going over his life and times. All he can recall is darkness and fear. His colleague pushes him to face the past by replaying their repertoire of gags, wordplay and sketches.

By turns darkly funny, poignant and tragic, a series of ingenious quick-cutting scenes communicate a modern history of Burma and its special connection with the UK.

After a short interval the hour-long performance is followed by a cast/audience discussion. Change has recently come to Burma, including the release of Aung San Suu Kyi and her election as an MP. But many political prisoners remain in jail; forced labour, ethnic and religious violence, displacement of people and the use of child soldiers continue. Recently asked how democratic Burma is on a scale of one to 10, Aung San Suu Kyi replied 'We are on the way to one'.

The audience at this performance will include Anna Roberts (Director of the Burma Campaign UK) and Kate Allen (Director of Amnesty International in the UK), so the discussion will have an extra flavour.

Northern International Theatre is a professional group brought together specifically to present The Burma Play. They have performed from the Edinburgh Festival Fringe to the Burmese community in London's Thingyan festival. They work free of charge: all the evening's proceeds will be shared between The Burma Campaign and Amnesty International which both support democracy and safety for the Burmese people.

Director David Bell, born in Burma, has clocked up more than 50 plays in fringe, regional and touring theatre. Anglo-Burmese performer Cilla Baynes's father was in the next room to Aung San, the independence leader and father of Aung San Suu Kyi, when he was assassinated in 1947. Director of Community Arts Northwest, Cilla was awarded an MBE for her work. Musician/composer Omar Sattaur lived as a journalist in South Asia and now performs with several ensembles including the international fusion band Beating Wing.

The play is promoted by the Lyme Regis Group of Amnesty International, the performance is at 7.30pm on Friday, October 18th. Tickets cost £7 (£6 concessions) online from www.marinetheatre.com, from the Tourist Information Centre in Lyme Regis (01297-442138), by calling 01297 442237, or on the door.

Fortnam Smith & Banwell open in London's West End!

We are proud to have been selected as a member of the London Mayfair Group which brings together the most knowledgeable and experienced independent estate agents across the UK.

But it is not just at a local level that we in the Mayfair Group can help home moves. With over 300 offices across the UK we are one of the largest and most effective networks of estate agents in the country. There are also 150 Mayfair Group offices overseas, all linked through the powerful Mayfair Office website, www.mayfairoffice.co.uk which features some 16,000 properties.

WORKING TOGETHER IS WHAT SETS US APART
What is the Mayfair Group? Well, it is just about the best thing to happen to buyers and sellers of property for a very long time – a group of expert independent estate agents really working together in the interests of all home movers. Like so many of our high streets over the past few years, estate agency has become top-heavy with corporate brands. This may be all well and good for fashion and food chains but property is a very personal and local business. People's homes are not commodities to be traded like socks and wares. They are a person's most valuable possession representing a huge investment both in money and emotion.

What is the most effective thing we can do to help you buy or sell property?

The answer is to put you in direct contact with the best and leading estate agent in the place you want to be – the sort of firm that you would willingly recommend to friend or family.

This is where Fortnam's Mayfair Office comes in.

Situated in Thayer Street, W1 in the heart of London's West End between Oxford Street and Marylebone Village, Mayfair Office handles our national advertising and PR. Our London team is skilled in property marketing and enables us to offer unbeatable local knowledge supported by all the benefits of a West End agency.

As well as being a London showcase for our properties, our colleagues in Mayfair Office excel in securing valuable national PR on our clients' properties in titles such as The Times, The Telegraph, The Evening Standard, etc.

Their contacts with property journalists in the national media have been very well developed over the past 20 years.

Mayfair Office is also a leading advertiser in all the major national newspapers, and magazines such as Country Life and Horse & Hound. Their large buying power enables them to pass on significant discounts to our clients.

This regular exposure of property to a wider national market through editorial features and national advertising is an ongoing process which generates property enquiries from buyers who will probably not be registered with other local estate agents.

For details on how Fortnam Smith & Banwell and their new London office can introduce your property to a wider market please call Seaton Branch Manager Charlotte Reynolds on 01297 23939 or Nick Churton in London on 020 7467 5333.

Success in key markets secures continued growth for Bentley

BENTLEY Motors has built on its successful performance for the first half of 2013, after announcing that global customer deliveries to the end of September have grown by nine per cent (6,516 cars) against the same period in 2012 (5,969 cars).

Bentley's largest market, the Americas, sustained its strong growth, with Europe and the Middle East also posting impressive gains, driven by sales success across all model lines; the new Flying Spur, Continental GT and Mulsanne.

Kevin Rose, Bentley's Board Member for Sales, Marketing and Aftersales, commented: "Strong performance from our W12 models continued, with the Continental GT Speed and Continental GT Speed Convertible proving successful in all territories. This, added to increases in our V8 and Mulsanne models, maintains our impressive performance and strongly reinforces our position as market leader among our direct competitors in the luxury car market."

The Americas strengthened its position as Bentley's largest market, delivering 2,022 cars to customers, a 16 per cent increase on the same period in 2012.

Buoyed by recent dealer expansion, with 44 Bentley dealers now in Continental Europe alone, the European market posted a 14 per cent growth to 1,081 cars, with the UK delivering 1,055 cars, representing a 24 per cent increase.

The Mulsanne, Bentley's flagship model, continued to prove popular in the Middle East, with a 53 per cent delivery increase, with the market as a whole growing to 596 cars, rising by 26 per cent. There was a similar story in Asia Pacific, where 315 cars were delivered to customers, a 38 per cent increase.

with a 9 per cent increase in deliveries (142 cars). In China, with the eagerly anticipated new Flying Spur deliveries having commenced in the third quarter, 1,264 cars were delivered, representing a 17 per cent decrease over last year.

Overall, Bentley remains optimistic to reach double digit growth of its sales figures in the full year 2013.

THE BMW Group continued its successful course in September with another record month in sales. With 189,675 (prev. yr. 177,726) BMW, MINI and Rolls-Royce vehicles delivered worldwide, sales were 6.7% higher than in the same month last year. In the first nine months of 2013, sales increased by 7.5% to the new all-time high of 1,436,178 vehicles (prev. yr. 1,335,502).

Ian Robertson, member of the Board of Management of BMW AG, responsible for Sales and Marketing BMW: "We achieved record global deliveries for the month of September and the first nine months of the year. Despite initial signs of stabilisation in the European automobile market, conditions in many countries remain challenging. However, we have been able to keep our European sales on a similar level year-on-year and once again reported major gains in the U.S. and Asia. We are therefore well on our way to another increase in deliveries for the full year 2013 and a new sales record."

BMW brand worldwide sales climbed by 7.6% to 158,029 vehicles in the month under review (prev. yr. 146,852). Growth was primarily driven by the BMW 3 Series, which amounted to 44,752 vehicles, an increase of 13.9% on the previous year (39,304).

Year-to-date, the BMW brand has delivered 1,209,598 vehicles, an increase of 9.0% on the same period in 2012 (1,109,962). Demand for the BMW X1 remained strong with 116,451 vehicles sold in the first nine months, an increase of 13.6% on the previous year (102,519). The BMW X1 has proven to be yet another success story for the BMW Group with over 500,000 units delivered to customers since its launch at the end of 2009. The BMW 3 Series increased sales by 27.6% year-to-date, with a total of 365,772 vehicles delivered (prev. yr. 286,622). Sales of the BMW X3 continued to be strong, climbing 5.7% to 113,945 vehicles (prev. yr. 107,833).

The BMW 5 Series reaffirmed its clear segment leadership with 270,902 units sold (prev. yr. 263,738/+2.7%) and the BMW 6 Series continued to perform well with 20,360 vehicles delivered year-to-date (prev. yr. 16,607/+22.6%).

MINI posted its best ever September sales with 31,313 vehicles delivered worldwide (prev. yr. 30,563/+2.5%). The brand recorded growth in several of its key markets including the U.S. (5,306/+8.3%), Mainland China (2,740/+4.1%) and Japan (1,700/+5.7%). MINI also had its most successful first nine months ever, despite continued headwinds in Europe. In the period up to and including September, MINI sold 224,280 vehicles (prev. yr. 223,214/+0.5%).

Sales of Rolls-Royce Motor Cars in the first three quarters of the year totalled 2,300 units (prev. yr. 2,326/-1.1%). Strong performances were seen in China and the Middle East, although some markets, particularly in mainland Europe, remained challenging. Pleasing global sales were seen in September (333/+7.1%) with third quarter sales up 13.6% (825) on last year. This growth, together with the overwhelmingly positive response to the new Rolls-Royce Wraith, reflects the cautious optimism that was expressed by Rolls-Royce at the beginning of the year. A strong finish to 2013 is anticipated.

BMW Motorrad achieved a new all-time retail high in September with 9,264 units (prev. yr.: 9,215 units/+0.5%). Supplies of motorcycles and maxi scooters from January up to and including September totalled 93,154 units (prev. yr.: 85,944 units/+8.4%).

The BMW Group reported gains in nearly all of its markets last month.

In Asia, sales grew by 18.0% in September to 54,014 vehicles (prev. yr. 45,782). The BMW Group made strong gains in Asia in the first nine months of the year, with sales climbing 17.8% to 421,456 vehicles (prev. yr. 357,841). The company achieved robust growth in Mainland China, which accounted for 35,804 deliveries in September, an increase of 20.8% over the same month in the previous year (29,631). Year-to-date, 284,964 BMW and MINI vehicles have been sold in Mainland China (prev. yr. 237,056) which reflects an increase of 20.2%. The BMW Group posted solid gains in other Asian markets in the first nine months of the year, including Japan (46,502/+10.8%) and South Korea (29,409/+19.8%).

In the Americas, the BMW Group delivered 36,889 vehicles in September (prev. yr. 34,050/+8.3%). Since the beginning of the year, 325,078 vehicles were delivered to customers in the Americas, which is an increase of +11.8% on the previous year (290,888). The BMW Group in the U.S. reported September sales of 28,874 vehicles (prev. yr. 26,660/+8.3%). Year-to-date, company sales in the U.S. are up 11.6% with a total of 262,200 vehicles sold, compared to 234,928 in the same period in 2012.

In Europe, BMW Group sales in September were slightly above last year's level with a total of 93,073 vehicles delivered (prev. yr. 92,450/+0.7%). In the first nine months, BMW Group sales remained at last year's level, with a total of 641,195 vehicles delivered (prev. yr. 639,828/+0.2%).

Audi TT sales hit half a million marked by new TT's limited edition

High performance 272PS Coupé and Roadster special edition commemorates global sales milestone

- TTS Limited Edition now available to order in Coupé and Roadster forms to mark 500,000 sales milestone
- Priced from £38,860 OTR and £42,320 respectively
- £5,665-worth of styling and equipment upgrades for a premium of £2,815 over 'standard' TTS equivalents

THE most iconic Audi sports car ever that rapidly shot to stardom at its 1998 debut and has consistently shone ever since has now been delivered to over 500,000 customers Worldwide.

To mark this milestone for the first generation TT, its acclaimed 2006 successor and the current, significantly revised model, a very special version of the 272PS TTS has just become available in very limited numbers. Priced from £38,860 OTR in Coupé form and £42,320 OTR as a Roadster, the new TTS Limited Edition will be delivered to just 500 customers worldwide, only 120 of which will be UK-based.

From the word go the TTS competition models set themselves apart through an Audi exclusive paint finish in Nimbus grey for Coupé models and Imola yellow for Roadsters. Both also feature a fixed rear spoiler in the style of the flagship TT RS, and an upgrade from the standard TTS 18-inch five parallel spoke design alloy wheel to a 19-inch five-arm rotor design.

Inside, special Impulse grey leather upholstery with the famous 'baseball' stitching in grey and yellow immediately marks them out, and a '1 of 500' plaque in the door insert underlines their exclusivity. A raft of additional driver aids and entertainment extras also makes them even easier to live with. The list includes the technology package comprising DVD-based satellite navigation, a Bluetooth mobile phone interface and Audi Music Interface (AMI) iPod connection, plus a BOSE sound system upgrade, rear parking sensors, cruise control, light and rain sensors and an interior light package providing targeted illumination of specific areas such as the footwells and interior door handles.

Excellent foundations

These features further expand an already comprehensive equipment list which includes exclusive TTS body styling, a quad-tailpipe sports exhaust system, TTS sports suspension with Audi magnetic ride damper control, xenon headlamps with LED daytime running lights, electronic climate control, heated front sports seats and matt brushed aluminium inlays.

The TTS Limited Edition models carry a premium of £2,815 over their 'standard' TTS equivalents, and taking into account their additional equipment this equates to a customer saving of around £5,665 compared with specifying the various items individually.

In the TTS Limited Edition Coupé the 2.0-litre TFSI engine with its 272PS and peak torque of 350Nm is linked to either six-speed manual or six-speed S tronic twin-clutch transmissions. Equipped with the latter, it can touch 62mph from rest after just 5.3 seconds and reach a governed top speed of 155mph, and offers 36.7mpg economy potential with CO2 emissions of 179g/km.

The production of the 500,000th Audi TT underscores the success of the compact sports car, which debuted as a Coupé in 1998 and as a Roadster the year after. The TT set standards not only for its design purity but also for its technology, which included 'downsized' turbocharged engines, quattro all-wheel drive for the high-end models and the six-speed S tronic transmission, which debuted in the range in 2003.

The second generation model, which followed in 2006, marked the first time that Audi succeeded in reversing the weight spiral. Thanks to its ASF (Audi Space Frame) body, which is made predominantly of aluminium, the new version weighs as much as 90 kilograms less than its predecessor. The low weight enables strong performance with very low fuel consumption. Another Audi innovation was the TT 2.0 TDI quattro: the world's first premium-segment sports car with a powerful diesel engine and all-wheel drive.

▲ SUCCESS SYMBOL FOR THE AUDI TT | The exclusive Audi TTS Limited Edition has just become available to coincide with the sale of a milestone 500,000 examples of the compact sports car since its 1998 launch.

Axmouth clinch nine-goal thriller...just!

Match report AXMOUTH UNITED 5 OKEHAMPTON ARGYLE RES 4 Division Four

IN what was very much the cliché game of two halves Axmouth stormed out of the blocks.

Goals from Asa Sandman (2) Scott Dyer, Jamie Hughes and Mike Challis established a 5-0 half-time lead with a dominant display.

The visitors were given very little apart from a hotly disputed penalty which was missed.

In stark contrast the visitors started brightly after the break and pulled back what looked like a consolation goal.

But the game turned when Ax felder Dan Jeeves was dismissed in the 55th minute.

With Okehampton sensing an opportunity they pressed forward in numbers and 5-1 became 5-2 then 5-3 and, with not long left, 5-4.

Sandman had a great chance to kill the game off when he raced away from his own half only to be denied his hat-trick by a fine save.

With five minutes injury time added on the home fans nerves were tested but rewarded as the home side held on.

Ax manager Laurie Forino said: "We really thought we were home and hosed after the first-half, but it shows you can never take anything for granted."

"In the end we have seen it out - and credit to the lads, both home and away, for giving everyone watching an entertaining afternoon, although I can do without that type of finish in the future!"

Seaton U14 1
Exmouth United 2

SEATON TOWN U14s tasted defeat for the first time this season going down 2-1 to Exmouth Utd.

In a hard fought game Town's lack of finishing proved decisive with several good chances not taken.

Manager Tony Bartlett said: "I was pleased again with our possession and control of large periods of the game."

William Helliwell then turned his marker inside out and crossed McCabe to strike for a second time.

Central City replied with a fantastic shot from distance which gave Seaton goalie Alfie Tucker-Vincent no chance.

In the second-half the hosts had a lot of the play but the Seaton defence of Piers Alphonse, Ben Bush and Jamie Davey stood firm and Tucker-Vincent made some great saves.

Under pressure Seaton were looking to counter attack and when a late long ball found McCabe completed his hat-trick to clinch the win.

"Between our goal and the United equaliser we had three excellent chances to extend our lead.

Their goal was a quality finish, but on chances created we should have taken the game away from them by half-time.

The second-half was more even, and the game could have swung either way.

"Exmouth are an excellent side and each time we play them we get closer to beating them."

"Hopefully we can make that happen in the return fixture."

"Another excellent performance from Ben Turley was backed up by Dane James and Oliver Browne."

"Our thanks go to our new Sponsors Southern Gas Networks."

cricket honiton cc awards

Bright future

WITH the cricket season now over Honiton cricket club recently held their end of season awards evening at their new main Sponsor Deer Park Country Hotel, but a few weeks prior to this several of the clubs senior players and members of their colts section visited the Hotel to be officially presented with their new playing shirts for.

The shirts were presented by Deer Park Managing Director Mark Godfrey to club president Terry Linsdell.

The committee, players and their family's attend the annual awards night, in what was a thoroughly enjoyable evening by had by all, despite the club's senior side having somewhat of a struggle on the field. The first X1 managed to finish 6th after looking doomed after half a dozen games and the 2nd X1 where relegated with several key players missing for whole season.

The food was amazing and they enjoyed a three-course meal prepared and served by the Deer Park's excellent kitchen and waiting staff,

Rob Ingram did his usual excellent presentation on the big screen, Club president handed out to trophies to the following winners; 1st X1 Bowler Adam Holmes, 1st X1 Batsmen Kevin Kelly, 1st X1 Players Player Kevin Kelly, 2nd X1 Bowler Richard Hill, 2nd X1 Batsmen Tom Strawbridge, 2nd X1 Players Player Richard Hill, Youth Player Charlie Wright, Most Improved Corey Lapping, Performance Of The Year Kevin Kelly, Duckman Of The Year Ben Paverley. Overall Player of the Year Kevin Kelly. Chairperson Kim Slater gave the following speech at the start of the evening

"The 2013 season has come to an end, and many positives can be taken from this season.

There were a large number of youth players for whom 2013 was their first foray into senior cricket. They did not disappoint and made HCC proud, what they lacked in experience was made up for by their enthusiasm - the foundations are laid for a promising 2014 season.

The other successes for the club were off the field, and all at the club, players, officials and members are grateful to all the local businesses who generously helped to ensure a healthy future for Cricket in Honiton.

Many local businesses were involved, sponsoring matches, helping with providing vital services and supplies, unfortunately they are too numerous to mention.

However, the club would like to thank them all, and a special thank you, to our Club Sponsors, The Deer Park Country House Hotel.

Their Sponsorship of the club means that we can go into 2014 knowing that our future is secure, and can concentrate on building success on the field.

HCC would like to welcome new players, volunteers and spectators to Mountbatten Park in 2014, the club boasts a club house with bar which is open during League matches, and we have planned a number of events both at the Club and The Deer Park Country House Hotel, please visit our website www.honiton.play-cricket.com for details of events."

Top two march on

IT was a case of 'as you were' in division one this week with the top two sides recording wins big enough to deny their opponents a point.

OPG held on to the top spot when they came up against Signs South West. With Tracy Moran calling the plays for OPG from centre they were in control from the start with SSW always chasing the game despite good work from Poppy Williams at centre.

OPG were 21-9 up by half way and although SSW had better possession in the last two quarters OPG recorded a 46-20 win.

Flamingos were up against Updownman who have now gone four games without a win, and this time did not even have the consolation of picking up a point for their efforts.

Gina Thompson had a fine game for Flamingos in their 46-16 win whilst once again Viv Grant was the star player for Updownman.

Third game of the night was between the two newly promoted sides, Hi Q and Sidmouth Toucans.

Hi Q came into the game off of a fine win over Updownman last week, while Toucans were still looking for their first point.

As it was Sidmouth did pick up a point whilst Hi Q made it two wins in a row to go level on points with SSW. With Bev Parris in good form for Hi Q they started well and were 24-12 up at the half way stage.

In the third period Caroline Biggs got Toucans moving and they outscored Hi Q to start the final quarter 20-29 adrift.

The last session saw Hi Q bounce back to control the quarter and record a 42-26 victory.

Scores round-up: OPG 46 Signs South-West 20, Hi Q 42 Sidmouth Toucans 26, Flamingos 46 Updownman 16.

DIVISION TWO

THE second division results this week have opened up the table so that only two points separate the top four sides and no side is now.

Both Tip Top Trees and Pixies started the evening with three wins from three but both suffered defeats.

Tip Top Trees were up against JD Tyres and the game started evenly with JD edging the first quarter by 17-13.

The second period was dominated by JD with Tanya Broom playing well and they denied 3Ts a score to move 23-13 up.

Although the young Trees side were playing well, and especially Molly Simpson, they were being outscored in each quarter and ended on the wrong end of a 44-26 score line.

Pixies unbeaten run came to an end when they met Howden Hawks who were victors by 26-11 thanks to good play from Zoe Dunn. Pixies have the best defence in the division but even the good play of Anna Benson wasn't enough to give them victory this time.

The final game of the evening was between Otter Valley Dairy and newcomers Blackdown Ladies, with both sides looking for their first win.

In a close, but low scoring game, it was OVD who picked up the three points with the Ladies once again having to make do with a single point for their efforts.

For the third time this season the Blackdown player-of-the-match was Nicki Snell, whilst Pippa Wyatt picked up the honour for OVD from their 16-12 win.

Scores round-up: Pixies 11 Howden Hawks 26, Tip Top Trees 26 JD Tyres 44, Otter Valley Dairy 16 Blackdown Ladies 12.

Channel Island cheers for Honiton RC

AXE VALLEY RUNNERS

with Dave Mutter
DIANE and Graham Newton took part in the Bournemouth Marathon Festival last weekend.

Diane took to the start line first for the half marathon with nearly 3000 runners taking part. The course took the runners through the streets of Boscombe and down to the seafront where the runners ran along the sea front and out and back on the two piers.

Despite the unseasonable heat Diane was very pleased to finish the race in 2:13:48, in 1568th place, taking a full 17 minutes off her personal best.

Next Graham took his place in line up for the inaugural marathon with more than 3000 other runners.

The course was mostly flat with a few hills, the worst being at the 18 mile marker.

Graham ran extremely well to complete the marathon 178th in 3:25:28, a PB by a full 10 minutes.

Meanwhile, 24 juniors lined up at the start of October's handicap on Monday's club night with the first five scorers all beating their PB.

Ben Franklin was 1st, 12:43 followed by William Blackledge, 12:58; Adam Burrough, 15:17; Max Bowskill, 14:39 and Bobby Simpson 12:31. Ben Franklin now heads the table with 146 points with Caleb Sinclair 2nd, 133 and Max Bowskill 3rd, 125.

Gareth Walker was the senior handicap winner in 25:20. He last won this event as a junior in the 1990's! Jon Day was 2nd, 21:15; Alan Morbey 3rd, 28:02, Eleanor Wood 4th, 24:43 and Rupert Pady 5th, 23:00.

It's very tight at the top of the rankings with Tim Sibley 1st, 119 points, James Gular 2nd, 117 and Eleanor Wood 3rd, 113.

Patrick Devine-Wright ran the Wye Valley 50 mile race - an A to B ultra-distance race starting at Llangurig and finishing in the village of Glasbury on Wye, following the river Wye for most of the 50 miles, except for a detour into the wilds of the Elan valley.

The course is mostly grassy cross-country, with innumerable gates, stiles and fences to cross, and although not mountainous, has 2200m of vertical ascent and some road sections.

Patrick finished 3rd in 7 hours 37 min, with the winner, Hugh Aggleton, managing a very swift 7 hours and 10 min - pretty much equivalent to 8min milling for 50 miles cross-country with 7000ft climb!

It was a cracking race, well-signposted and marshalled, run in cool temperatures but otherwise pretty dry conditions, good for running.

The Exeter Great West Run Half Marathon has been through many transitions but this year was possibly the biggest by moving it from Spring to Autumn.

The new rather undulating route through Exeter was undertaken by a few AVR's with Roger Bramley finishing 258th out of 2164 in 1:38:36.

Sam Wickens and Jacqui Rees-Lee finished near each other with Sam 849th in 1:53:10 and Jacqui 876th, 1:53:45. Jacqui was very pleased with her performance in only her 2nd Half Marathon.

HONITON RUNNING CLUB

with Judy Davey
St HELIER in Jersey saw about 40 Honiton Running Club members and supporters converge in the town ready to take part in the Marathon or Relay on Sunday, 5th October.

The club trip had come together after months of organisation by Wendy Le Masurier.

The Marathon was won by Reuben Chumba with a new course record of 2 hours 24 minutes and 23 seconds.

Judy Davey was first back for Honiton in a time of 3:31 coming 7th lady, 52nd overall and managing to win a vase for being 3rd in the Masters' category.

She also won a huge engraved silver plate for coming 1st in her age category. Judy had caught up with Steve Boyes at about mile 17 and they had kept pace with each other for the rest of the race. Steve was delighted to achieve a pb for the year finishing just 16 seconds and 1 place behind Judy.

Next back was Steve Davey running his 2nd ever marathon. He would have been more pleased to have beaten his wife but he was thrilled to have achieved a pb to finish 96th in 3:44.

Steve Briggs was next back in 183rd place and 4:05. He has vowed to come back next year and finish in under four hours.

Mark Dallyn had run with Steve for most of the distance but suffered over the last few miles. He did well to finish just 4 minutes behind Steve in 249th place.

Jennie Sleeman had run with marathon first timer Lin Pike for all but the last few miles and Jennie finished just 1 minute and 3 seconds ahead of Lin in 249th place with a time of 4:27.

Lin was delighted with her achievement. Simon Hall was pleased just to finish as he admitted his longest training run had been about 13 miles. He managed 292nd place in 4:56.

Pete Lyus is an experienced runner but has always said he would never attempt a marathon. He did brilliantly to crack the five-hour mark in 4:59 finishing in 301st place.

Wendy Williams was also tackling a marathon for the first time and finished just two places after Pete and missing out on the five hour barrier by just a minute.

There were 336 finishers (but quite a lot more starters)

The relay covers exactly the same route as the marathon with five runners in the team each taking a leg varying in length from three to nine miles.

Honiton Hurlers made up of Olivia Higginson (Captain), Bruce Strawbridge, Kevin Hawker, Howard Bid-mead and Hadleigh Davies came an amazing 9th place overall.

They were disappointed to miss out on a prize by just seven seconds.

The Hot Steppers consisting of Nick Thorpe, Carol Turnham, John Burgess, Juliet Hall and Clare Melbourne (Captain) finished 155th in 3:55.

Honiton's Jersey Girls were next back in 214th place in 4:09 - runners were Sue Jones, Sandra Thorpe, Claire Pomeroy, Vanessa Glyn-Jones and Jo Davey (Captain).

Five Run a Marathon completed Honiton's teams coming 247th in 4:21 and was made up of Ian Jeeves, Tracey Strawbridge (Captain), Wendy Le Masurier, Maggie Dillon and Liz Corney. There were 270 teams altogether.

Meanwhile, back in Devon other runners were representing the club at the Minster Challenge based at Axminster Community College.

First back for Honiton was Chris Entwistle coming an excellent 2nd position in 52:49 although this was helped by the front runner Matt Clist going slightly off track and ending up coming 5th.

Alasdair Moffett was next in coming 10th in 57:15 closely followed by Tom Borne in 57:24.

Jarrold Brown was putting in a rare appearance for the club and did himself proud coming 13th in 57:43.

Suzanne Spiller was 1st lady back for Honiton and 2nd lady overall in a time of 59:28 and 16th place.

Mark Andow was next back in 30th place in 1:03:34 followed by Simon Spiller 24 seconds later to complete Honiton's team.

There were 69 runners.

Two of the older juniors, Henry Riddle and Iain Ross, took part in the Fun Run coming in together across the line in 7th place in a time of 22:18.

There were 66 finishers. Thanks to all involved in organisation and marshalling of another great event.

Falconer swoops for Seniors cup

AXE CLIFF with Janet Dack

SENIORS

ON Friday the Seniors' Winter League Programme got underway.

The format is the same as the last few years, a pairs 15-hole Stableford with the best six scores from each team to count in the final analysis next March. Setting the pace with a score of 37 points are Rob Grove & Roger Wright, with John Pugh & Mick Tomes a close second with 36 points.

In third place a further point adrift with 35 are Malcolm Glass & Mike Jamieson.

On Monday the penultimate inter-club match of the season took place at Axe Cliff where the visitors were Libbaton.

In a closely fought match the end result was a 3-3 draw. Two of the games ended on the 18th, while three others were settled on the 17th.

Winning pairings for Axe Cliff; John White & John Mant, Gerry Turner & Nick Povey and Chris Walker & Jack Bannister.

LADIES

THE winner of last Wednesday's Par Competition with a very respectable minus 1 score was Margaret Kenchington.

Tomorrow (Wednesday) the ladies of Axe Cliff are due compete for the Daily Mail Foursomes - a national competition.

Representing the club will be Sandra Walker & Barbara Cummings who had the best score, just one point ahead of Glenda Board & Helen Kenworthy who were second, with Margaret Kenchington & Janet Dack also one point behind.

HONITON with Andy Wagner

ROUND Two of the 36-hole Marker Cup competition got under-way in incredibly benign conditions.

Gone were the fierce winds and threatening rain clouds of last week's first 18 holes.

The winning scores reflected the pleasure of the morning's stroll with John Tierney scoring best in Division One. His nett 66 took precedence over John Marchant's and Paul Hill's 68.

Division Two was even better with Sid Martin's nett 65 beating Club Captain Dave Morgan's 70 and Mike Watts' 72.

All this left John Tierney the overall winner with a 73,66 nett 139. Stan Squire was second with a very steady 70,70 nett 140 and Jake Phillips 71,70 nett 141.

Mixed Section

THIS week members played a Greensome Stableford Competition with an allowance of half combined handicap - with a slight difference - it was four clubs and a putter.

The winners with 43pts were Janet Hughes & Paul Ritchie. In 2nd place with 42pts on c/b were Elizabeth Ward & John Northover.

In 3rd place, also 42pts, were Maureen Tollemache & John Dickinson.

The Honiton Golf Club Tuesday Mixed annual outing was held on 3/4th October at Bowood Park Golf Club.

The format for both days was drawn teams of four full handicap allowance with two best scores to count.

Due to adverse weather conditions the first day's play was reduced to 9nine holes.

The winners were the team of Catherine Doherty, Di Wall, Max Pipe & Andy Sharland with an impressive 47pts. In 2nd place were Heather Clarke, Olwen Eaton, Peter Clarke & Phil Wall with 42pts on c/b from 3rd place also 42pts - Linda McLaughlin, Elizabeth Wood, John Northover & Paul Witton.

The weather on the second day was better and allowed everyone to play 18 holes.

The winning team with 82pts were; Catherine Doherty, Peter Clarke, Andy Sharland & Laurie Tollemache.

The 2nd and 3rd places both scored 75pts but on c/b the team of Linda McLaughlin, Jill Mico, Ryan Eaton & Phil Wall just edged the team of Maureen Tollemache, Di Wall, John Northover & Vaughan Whiteley into third place.

As in the previous year during the evening Vaughan Whiteley (guitar and vocals) and Paul Witton (guitar) entertained everyone with their specially written lyrics detailing events from the Club.

Max Pipe then continued the entertainment with his stories and jokes.

Despite the less than perfect weather it was a most enjoyable and successful trip and thanks must go to Sue and Paul Ritchie for all their hard work in organising the event.

Seniors Section

A COLD and windy start made play difficult for the 68 Seniors competing for the Seniors cup, the last medal competition of the season.

Only three players beat par with Angus Falconer showing the way with a nett 68 to take the trophy.

He beat Andy Sharland and Mike Kent by one shot and the last Division One prizes went to Tony Williams and John Fleetwood, both on 71.

Division Two was won by Robin Mitchell with a 71. Fred Utting was runner-up just one shot adrift and Peter Blake came third, beating Phil Faulkner and Norman Runci-man on countback.

Seaton in cup shock

A 2-0 DEFEAT under the floodlights at Greenway Lane against Budleigh Salterton on Wednesday saw Axminster Town drop down into the bottom three in the South West Peninsula League Division One (east).

But the Tigers put an end to a seven game losing run with a 3-3 draw at Plymstock United on Saturday.

In a topsy-turvy game Axminster trailed 2-0 then led 3-2 before Jon Hurford put through his own goal five minutes from time.

Hurford and Callum Garrett (2) netted at the right end for the Tigers.

Next up for Axminster is Saturday's visit by Galmpton United (3pm ko)

Elsewhere, there was a shock in the East Devon Senior Cup as Devon & Exeter league premier division outfit Seaton Town, conceded four second-half goals and went down 4-0 at division one side Sid-bury United.

The Greens will look to bounce back on Saturday when they return to league action with the visit of Thorverton.

After a week off Beer Albion entertain Tiverton Town Reserves.

Meanwhile, Axminster Reserves went down 5-1 against Woodbury at Colyton Grammar School.

Seaton Reserves were also on the wrong end of a hiding as they went down 8-0 against Bow AAC Reserves on their own Colyford Road turf.

Colyton are still searching for their first division two win of the season after being held to a 2-2 draw by Westex Rovers.
